SecOps Europe 2019's concept is to develop and enhance cyber security awareness with both offensive and defensive presentations, by sharing experience with real cyberwarriors from both sides, while following closely the International Cyber Competition where the competing teams discuss the strategic and tactic responses to a major cyber-attack on the day after the incident occurred.

Call For Speakers

We require presentations from a wide spectrum of IT security topics, but we favour presentations with demo.

The presentation time should be 30 min and the language must be English.

Regarding the event concept we prefer incident handling and application security, but the topics doesn't have any limitation.
